PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Nashville, Tenn., May 9, 1862.

WHEREAS, certain persons, unfriendly and hostile to the Government of the United States, have banded themselves together, and are now going at large through many of the counties in this State, arresting, maltreating and plundering Union citizens wherever found;

Now, therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, Governor of the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim that in every instance in which a Union man is arrested and maltreated by the marauding bands aforesaid, five or more rebels from the most prominent in the immediate neighborhood shall be arrested, imprisoned, and otherwise dealt with as the nature of the case may require; And further, in all cases in which the property of citizens loyal to the Government of the United States is taken or destroyed, full and ample remuneration shall be made to them out of the property of such rebels in the vicinity as have sympathized with, and given aid, comfort, information or encouragement to the parties committing such depredations.

This order will be executed in letter and spirit. All citizens are hereby warned under heavy penalties from entertaining, receiving or encouraging such persons so banded together or in any wise connected therewith.

By the Governor:

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Communication from Person Brownlow.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

ASHER & CO., of Indianapolis, have brought out a small trashy book, in cheap form, purporting to be my "Life, Speeches and Addresses," connected with my troubles among the Secessionists. This is a poor production, doing me great injustice, and by no means reporting me correctly, either as to my history or speeches since I came North. I am now preparing a genuine book of the kind, and will have it out in a few days, published by GEORGE W. CHILDS, of Philadelphia. APPLEGATE & CO., of Cincinnati, are the publishers for the West. I caution the public against the bogus concern, as I shall at once commence legal proceedings against all concerned in vending it, as well as the publisher.
